

DECODING THE DRAFT BILL FOR INDIVIDUALS

RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS

The bill proposes the rights to individuals, which ensures that their personal data is processed with their consent and there are measures available to safeguard their data.

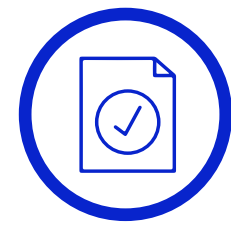

Right to Information about Personal Data

Right to Correction and Erasure of Personal Data

Right of Grievance Redressal

Right to Nominate

RIGHT TO INFORMATION ABOUT PERSONAL DATA

Individuals have the Right to Obtain information from businesses, such as :

Confirmation about the processing of their personal data.

If processed, request for the summary of the personal data processed along with activities undertaken.

Identities of other data fiduciaries with whom personal data is shared, and the categories of personal data shared.

RIGHT TO CORRECTION AND ERASURE OF PERSONAL DATA

Individuals have the Right to Correct personal data with the data fiduciary in case of inaccurate or misleading or incomplete personal data.

The Right to Erasure of personal data can be exercised by individuals where personal data is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it was processed.

RIGHT OF GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

Individuals have the Right to Register a grievance against the processing of personal data with the data fiduciary.

RIGHT TO NOMINATE

Individuals have the Right to Nominate any other individual to exercise their rights, in the event of death or incapacity.

DUTIES OF INDIVIDUALS

The bill also lays down the duties for the individuals to prevent misuse of the provisions of the law.

Duty to comply with the provisions, ensuring that the rights are being exercised in the way and manner prescribed by the bill.

Duty to not register false or frivolous grievances/complaints.

Duty to not impersonate, furnish, or suppress material information while applying for a document, service, proof of identity, etc.

Duty to furnish verifiably authentic information while exercising the right to correction or erasure.

Supported by:

